

Brontë Way 8

Sunday 5th October 2008 – 11:00am. Bottle of Timothy Taylor's Landlord to all Finishers. Full information at www.kcac.co.uk

A classic point to point, 8 mile trail/fell race, across the magnificent Brontë moors, that starts at Wycoller Country Park near Trawden GR 933393 (South Pennines Sheet) and finishes in the doorway of the Fleece Inn on the old cobbled street in Haworth. The course is very scenic, and entirely off-road.

There's a bottle of Championship Timothy Taylor's Landlord if you make it to the finish, plus soup and a roll in the pub too. Registration is at the Aisled Barn, Wycoller Country Park, where all race numbers will be issued. All this for just £7.00 — payable to Keighley & Craven A. C. Post your entry and payment to: John Preston, Brontë Way, The Coach House, Springhead, Tim Lane, Oakworth. BD22 7SP. Tel: 01535 646695.

Coach transport from Haworth to the Start at Wycoller Country Park is available if you pre-enter. Please try to have your entry with us no later than September 28th. Coach leaves Haworth (top of Rawdon Road) at 9:30am sharp. Kit will be brought back to the finish. Or, you can ENTER ON THE DAY if you make your own way to Wycoller. Please only park your car in official car parks at Wycoller to avoid upsetting the locals.

Do come prepared to run with the following kit: Waterproof cagoule and over-trousers, map, compass and whistle. We want you to enjoy the race and stay safe.
